

WHAT'S YOUR CROYDON?

CREATE AND SHARE A STORY WITH US
AND YOU COULD HAVE YOUR WORK INCLUDED AS PART OF AN EXHIBITION AT CROYDON MUSEUM!

We are inviting entries from children and young people living or studying in Croydon who are 19 and under. You can write or share your short story in any format you feel works best, for example; written, illustrated, comic, poem, short play, spoken word or song. The only requirement is that it is either set in or inspired in some way by Croydon.

The deadline for entries is February 29th

Submit your entries in person by handing in at any Croydon Library with a completed entry form. You can also submit by email to Kelly.ng@goodwolfpeople.co.uk. Entry forms can be downloaded from www.goodwolfpeople.co.uk, or collect a copy of the form in person at any Croydon Library.

The stories will be considered by a panel from Good Wolf, Croydon Libraries and Croydon Writers Group.

The exhibition 'Storytellers' will take place in the Croydon Now Gallery from February-April 2020.

ENTRY FORM

Name:

Date of Birth: __ / __ / ____

Postcode:

School/College:

Title of Entry:

Format:

Tell us a bit about yourself :

.....
.....
.....

How to contact you:

.....
.....
.....

Date submitted:

Received by: